

Chapter 23, Section 2

GUIDED READING

A. Possible responses:

1. liberty, property, security, resistance to oppression, equal justice, freedom of speech, freedom of religion
2. Many were conservative Catholics who were offended by attempts to make the church a part of the state.
3. radicals, moderates, conservatives
4. that the revolution would spread beyond France and affect their countries
5. The Legislative Assembly gave up the idea of a limited monarchy, deposed the king, and called for the election of a new legislature to replace itself.
6. to build a “republic of virtue”
7. People of all classes grew weary of the Terror and shifted from radical left to conservative right.

B. Possible responses:

Émigrés: nobles on extreme right who wanted to restore Old Regime sans-culottes: wage-earners and shopkeepers on extreme left who wanted a greater voice in government

Jacobins: members of a radical political organization